Critical Success Factors for Improving Satisfaction

If the goal is to move a church as high into the transformational quadrant as possible, where do leaders begin? The chart below suggests where improvements might have the biggest impact on how members are feeling about the church overall. The higher the factor on this chart, the more important it is. The longer the bar, the more urgent is the need to address that issue. Items that do not appear on the list may be important, but working on them may not change how people feel about the church overall.

Critical Success Factors in the Urgent range generally need immediate attention. External resources are often helpful to leadership teams dealing with these issues. These resources might be found in a regional or national association, through colleagues serving in other churches, or by contracting with professional consultants.

If there are no Critical Success Factors listed below, it means that the Congregation Assessment Tool did not identify any significant internal issues that need to be addressed. This suggests that the leadership can turn its attention to strategic options that include numeric growth, expansion of facilities or programs, replication in other locations (including mentoring of other leaders), or increased external impact.
