

SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

WINNETKA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT
DECEMBER 4, 2022

GATHERING

*We gather together joyfully during this season of waiting.
May our greetings and visiting be signs of Christ's presence with us.*

PRELUDE

Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming

WELCOME

QUIET MEDITATION

CALL TO WORSHIP

We gather today on the brink of a birth.
Like Isaiah, we are invited to contemplate a world,
not as it is, but how it could be.
Let us heed the prophets who deliver God's messages.
Let us make God the focus of our thoughts and worship
during this Advent season.

GATHERING SONG

Comfort, My People

The ensemble will sing the song first; then the congregation sings together.

Com-fort, my peo-ple calm all your fear; the day of salva-tion is quick-ly draw-ing near. The One you long to—see will soon set you free. O— come, Lord Je - sus come. O— come, Lord Je - sus come.

ADVENT WREATH LIGHTING

As we light this Advent wreath,
may its flame be a symbol of hope;
its warmth a symbol of God's love;
and may it inspire us
to speak words that challenge, encourage,
and draw others to Jesus,
the Light of the World.
Amen.

OPENING SONG 107 | STANDING

Awake! Awake, and Greet the New Morn

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Advent God,
we journey with you
to Bethlehem's stable
and a newborn child, ears attuned to the voice of the prophets,
eyes alert for Bethlehem's star.

Forgive us
if on our journey
we are distracted
by the tempting offers of this world.
Keep our hearts aflame
with the promise of Advent,
and the birth of our Savior.

Silence is kept for personal confession.

Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Though the nights are long, the sun still rises;
though the mornings are dark, the birds still sing;
though the world isn't ready, Christ still comes;
though we don't listen or prepare or deserve,
God still loves and forgives and renews us.

Thanks be to God!

SUNG RESPONSE

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

WORD

PRAYER FOR ILLUMINATION

SCRIPTURE

Isaiah 11:1-10

This is the word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

CHORAL RESPONSE

Winter's Rose

Lo, how a rose e'er blooming, from tender stem has sprung.
Of Jesse's lineage coming as seers of old have sung.
It came, a blossom bright, amid the cold of winter,
when half-spent was the night.

This flower whose fragrance tender with sweetness fills the air, dispels in glorious splendor the darkness everywhere.
True man, yet very God, from sin and death now save us,
and share our every load.

*Children (K-6) are dismissed for music following the scripture readings.
They will return to sanctuary following the sermon.*

We Wait the Peaceful Kingdom

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

In the darkness of winter,
and in anticipation of Christ's coming,
we pray...

Come, O come, Emmanuel.

O God,
give courage to all who lead us:
those who make plans and laws that shape our lives,
and those who serve our communities...

Come, O come, Emmanuel.

O God, give courage to all who support us:
our parents and care-givers,
doctors and nurses,
and all those who are there when we need them...

Come, O come, Emmanuel.

O God, give courage to all who are in need:
the poor and the hungry,
the lost, the lonely and those in despair,
the sick and the suffering, especially Emma, Anne, Paul and Crys, Ocean and Vega, Ivan, Lori, Barbara, Nicole, Wendy, Lee, Mary Anne, Ettie, Sara Creasy, Andrew, and Carol...

Come, O come, Emmanuel.

O God, give courage to your Church:
as we await your coming help us to transform the world,
in the name of Emmanuel, who taught us to pray...

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever.
Amen.

SONG | STANDING

What Feast of Love

(Sung to the tune of "What Child Is This")

What feast of love is offered here,
what banquet come from heaven?
What food of everlasting life,
what gracious gift is given?
This, this is Christ the king,
the bread come down from heaven.
O taste and see and sing!
How sweet the manna given!

What wine of love is offered here,
what crimson drink from heaven?
What stream of everlasting life,
what precious drink is given?
This, this is Christ the king,
the sweetest wine from heaven.
O taste and see and sing!
The Son of God is given!

INVITATION TO THE LORD'S TABLE | STANDING

GREAT PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING | STANDING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give God thanks and praise.

It is a right, good, and joyful thing always and everywhere to give thanks to you, O God,
for sending your prophets to announce your coming reign,
your servants to prepare the way of the Lord,
and your Son, Jesus, to bring light to our darkness.
You draw us to yourself with the promise of salvation,
and every promise you make, in your goodness, you fulfill.
And so, with angels and archangels,
we praise your name and join in their unending hymn:

The image shows two staves of musical notation in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the hymn: "Ho ly, ho-ly, ho - ly Lord God of_ Hosts, Heav'n and earth are". The second staff contains the melody for the second line: "full of your glo - ry: Glo-ry be to you,_ O Lord, most high." The music is written in a simple, hymn-like style with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#).

Holy are you, and holy is your child, Jesus Christ,
whose coming we await with hope and anticipation,
and for whose life, death, and resurrection
we give thanks beyond measure.
May this meal we share be a sign that our redemption is near.
Pour out your Holy Spirit on us,
and on these gifts of bread and wine.
May they be for us a communion in the body and blood of Christ,
that we may be the body of Christ to a world sitting in darkness and gloom.

Come Lord Jesus,
with your Father and your Spirit, to the church,
and receive our praises, now and forever. Amen.

The congregation is seated.
